2022 Food Establishment Owner/Operator:

It is time once again to renew your Certificate of Compliance with the Monroe County Health Department. An application is enclosed, please fill it out entirely (front & back, please be sure to include an email address for important communications from this office) and return to our office with the appropriate fee. Fees are listed at the top of your application in red. Fees are based on the risk assessment from the previous year. Any significant menu changes shall be sent to the health department for evaluation.

SUBMIT names, ID numbers and expiration dates on your application for ALL licensed Certified Food Handlers/Certified Food Protection Managers/Allergen Awareness trained personnel. All applications and fees shall be returned to the Health Department postmarked by January 31, 2022. Late fees ($25/month) will be imposed on applications/fees returned to us later than February 1, 2022. (Examples: payment submitted February 1, 2022, = renewal fee + $25. Payment submitted March 1, 2022, = renewal fee + $50. Payment submitted April 1, 2022, = renewal fee + $75, etc.)

If you need additional forms, have lost portions of the application, or have questions about our billing, please feel free to contact, or if you have questions about food safety or the Food Code contact Elizabeth van Uffelen at (618) 939-3871 ext. 217. You may also find our renewal form on our website at www.monroecountyhealth.org. You may NOT use last year's form.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth van Uffelen
